

The President-Elect shall:

Serve for two (2) years.

Automatically become President at the termination of his/her predecessor's term of office.

Assume the responsibilities of the President if the President is unable to perform the duties of his/her office.

Be an ex-officio member of the Examination Committee