

Do you enjoy problem solving and independent decision making?

Then come to the “Loveliest Village on the Plains”: Auburn, AL.

The Auburn University Small Animal Teaching Hospital is seeking applicants for an anesthesia technician.

The successful candidate will enter a new position responsible solely for anesthesia and peri-operative pain management, joining an existing team of an experienced anesthetist and boarded anesthesiologist. Desire to instruct and ability to function independently with confidence are necessities.

Find a full job description, requirements, and application instructions at www.auemployment.com

Refer to requisition # 23156.

U.S. News and World Report ranked Auburn as the #2 Best Place to Live for 2009.

Auburn is blessed with four seasons, great public schools, friendly people, and many recreational activities. The cost of living is well below the national average and housing is very affordable. Traffic is non-existent, but Atlanta is a convenient 90 mile trip via interstate highway. You can't imagine a better quality of life for a family.

For additional information, contact Jacob Johnson at 334-844-0801.

Auburn University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer.