

Position: Surgery/Anesthesia Supervisor

The Veterinary Emergency & Specialty Center of New England (VESCONe) is looking for a qualified individual with excellent leadership, skills, communication and mentoring capabilities who will serve as the Head Technician in the Surgery/Anesthesia Department. Interested candidates will provide continuous leadership for the surgery department nursing staff and liaisons as well as aid in the organization and daily function of the surgery department. On call rotating schedule including some weekends and holidays required.

Basic Requirements: Associate or Bachelor degree from an AVMA accredited program in veterinary technology with current CVT status. Veterinary Technician Specialty anesthesia or CVT eligible to sit for the VTS examination in anesthesia is required. Candidates must have at least 3 years of experience in anesthesia and training under a board certified veterinary anesthesiologist or board certified VTS in anesthesia. Candidates must have experience in a leadership position.

Some of the benefits include:

- Excellent CE package
- Monthly in-house CE
- Health and Dental
- Retirement program
- Generous paid vacation
- Uniform allowance
- Generous on call bonus

VESCONe is an AAHA accredited, state-of-the-art 15,000 sq. foot small animal referral hospital specializing in radiology, emergency, surgery, ophthalmology and internal medicine located in Waltham, MA. If you are interested in a challenging and rewarding job, where your skills will be utilized to the fullest, then VESCONe is the place for you.

Please send your resume to:

Mary Ann Nieves, DVM, Diplomate, American College of Veterinary Surgeons

mnieves@vesccone.com

Fax: 781-890-2871